

Christopher R. Reynolds
crr@zrlaw.com

Christopher R. Reynolds joined Zashin and Rich Co., L.P.A. in 2007. Chris works in the firm's Domestic Relations Group. His practice encompasses all aspects of divorce, dissolution, child support, spousal support, property division, and parental rights and responsibilities.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Chris worked for over seven years in inpatient psychiatry, four years of which as a clinical social worker. His clinical practice included substantial experience with diagnostic assessment, individual, group, and marital therapy, as well as all aspects of crisis intervention.

Chris earned his Bachelor's of Arts in Psychology in 1998 and his Master's of Social Work (M.S.W.) in 2000, both from Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan. He earned his law degree (J.D.) in 2007 from the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, summa cum laude, where he also served as an editor on the Cleveland-Marshall Law Review.

Chris is admitted to practice law in the state of Ohio and is a Licensed Master's Social Worker in the state of Michigan.