

REAL ESTATE

Zashin & Rich real estate attorneys provide complete real estate counseling to our clients. Lawrence J. Rich has thirty years of experience in Real Estate law. Mr. Rich has also taught the subject at the local college level.

Zashin & Rich handles matters including: the purchase and sale of property; leases for industrial, commercial and residential property; eviction actions; negotiations with contractors; preparation and filing of mechanics liens; preparation of easements; defense of appropriation actions; and, filing and defense of foreclosure actions.

Furthermore, the firm represents clients seeking a reappraisal of property for tax purposes. Zashin & Rich provides services for our clients by filing applications for real estate tax reductions and defends against actions by governmental agencies seeking to increase real estate taxes.

Zashin & Rich also provides representation in general matters regarding real estate purchases, sales and leases to a full range of clients from first-time home buyers to sophisticated real estate investors. Moreover, Zashin & Rich handles simple to complex environmental issues including assessment, clean-up, and any related litigation.

If you have any questions pertaining to real estate matters, please contact Jonathan A. Rich.
